PM SHOWCASES NDA FEATS ON SOCIAL JUSTICE AND DEVELOPMENT

Invoking Karpoori, PM hits campaign trail in Bihar

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE Patna, New Delhi, Oct 24

PRIME MINISTER NARENDRA Modi on Friday launched his campaign for the Bihar Assembly elections with back-to-back rallies in Samastipur and Begusarai, weaving together a narrative of social justice, development and Hindutva, even as he cautioned people not to let to "jungle raj" return to the state, accusing the Opposition Mahagathbandhan leaders of lawlessness and corruption.

Modi said the incumbent NDA under Chief Minister and JD(U) president Nitish Kumar would clinch the polls and break electoral records. Without declaring Nitish as the NDA's CM candidate, Modi's remarks were apparently meant to counter the Opposition's barb that the BJP has fought shy of projecting Nitish as the CM face because it wanted to replace him after the elections.

The PM chose to launch his campaign by invoking legacy of socialist icon and former Bihar CM Karpoori Thakur. Before addressing his first rally at

former Bihar Chief Minister Karpoori Thakur during his visit to Karpoori Gram, in Samastipur district of Bihar on Friday

Samastipur, he visited Karpoori Gram, the paternal village of Thakur, in Samastipur district in the crucial Mithilanchal region. The Modi government conferred Bharat Ratna on Karpoori Thakur last year.

"I went to Karpoori Gram before coming here. I got a chance to pay my tributes to him. It is due to his blessings that people like me and Nitish ji coming from backward and poor families are on this stage," Modi told the rally. "In Independent India, in attempts to bring social justice, his role was very big. We had the good fortune of awarding him Bharat Ratna. He was our inspiration."

Combining the themes of social justice, law and order and corruption for his attack on the Mahagathbandhan, Modi told the Samastipur rally: "The RJD and Congress people are those on bail in scams running into thousands of crores. Now they are trying to steal the title Jan Nayak (people's hero, an oblique dig at the Congress' projection of Rahul Gandhi). People of Bihar will never tolerate this insult to Jan Nayak Karpoori Thakur."

Referring to widespread belief that Goddess Sita, the wife of Lord Ram, was from Mithilanchal, the PM said, "Your sonin-law is Lord Ram himself. So, when the Ram Templewas built in Ayodhya, people in Mithila were very happy."

In Begusarai, Modi called the Opposition Maha-lathbandhan, a neologism that evoked lathi (baton) to ridicule the INDIAbloc allies for taking on each other over seats. He also accused the Congress of "insulting" former party president Sitaram Kesri, who hailed from Bihar. In Begusarai, too, Modi made similar remarks. In both the speeches, he asked the gathering to switch on their mobile torch, and when many people did so, he quipped, referring to the RJD's poll symbol, "Itni light hai, har ek ke haath mein light hai. toh lalten chahiye kya? Bihar ko lalten aur unke saathi nahin chahiye."

Oppn using Zubeen to 'weaken' Hindu society: Himanta

ASSAM CHIEF MINISTER Himanta Biswa Sarma on Friday alleged that the opposition is using the issue demanding justice to Zubeen Garg to "weaken the Hindu society".

He also criticised eminent author and Sahitya Akademi awardee Rita Chowdhury, wife of state Parliamentary Affairs minister Chandra Mohan Patowary, for condemning a government SOP restricting the visiting hours at the cremation site of Zubeen Garg.

"The opposition is keeping this issue (demanding justice for Zubeen Garg) alive against Hindu society. Akhil Gogoi and the opposition say Zubeen did not have caste or religion. Was Zubeen not Hindu? Was Zubeen not an Assamese?" asked Sarma.

Garg, a rebel singer, had popularly proclaimed that he had no religion-caste, and he was free and just a human. On October 10, in a rare gesture of breaking the caste barrier, a fan of Zubeen Garg tore his 'lagun', the sacred thread worn by Brahmins, at the singer's cremation site and announced that he would live only like a human. PTI

RBI proposes 70% cap on financing...

ITALSO SAID that the aggregate exposure of a bank towards acquisition financing shall not exceed 10% of Tier-1 capital and proposed that the financing can be extended directly to the acquirer or to a step-down SPV set up for acquisition.

It said that the acquirer should be a listed firm with a record of satisfactory networth and profits for the past three years. Also, the target company and the acquirer should not a related party. Further, the acquisition value of the target companyshall be determined by two independent valuers. The postacquisition debt-to-equity ratio at the acquiring company or the SPV/target company will be subject to 3:1.

As collateral, the bank will have shares of the target company as primary security, and assets of the acquirer and/ortarget company or other securities held by the acquiring company, may be taken as collateral security as per the bank's policy.

In addition, it also allowed

banks to fund acquisition of shares of a public sector unit under a disinvestment programme approved by the government. When banks having exposures to capital market, it should not exceed 40% of its tier-I capital as on March 31 of the previous financial year, the RBI said. The bank's direct investment exposure and acquisition financing is capped at 20% of its tier-I capital. The RBI also urged banks to have internal limits for intra-day exposures to individual counterparties.

However, the RBI does not impose any limits on banks' investment in own subsidiaries, joint ventures, and sponsored RRBs, securities issued by forming critical financial infrastructure institutions, and debt instruments issued by other banks, among others. RBI urged banks to put in place robust mechanisms to monitor end use of the funds and assess suitable risk limits on liquidity, volatility, and potential stress period corrections to curb the potential risks.

The regulator also proposed to raise the loan-to-value ratio of loan against securities (listed shares and convertible debt securities) to 60% from the current 50%. In the case of government securities, it has been left to individual banks, per their policies. MFs excluding debt schemes, units of exchange traded funds and units of REITs/InVITs are subjected to LTV ratio of 75% and debt funds at 85%. The lender should maintain the LTV ratio and take necessary steps if it breaches the LTV ratio. The banking regulator has sought comments on the draft circular till November 21 And the final guidelines will be implemented from April 1.

These proposals come after the RBI unveiled a slew of mea sures to support credit flow where it proposed to provide an enabling framework for Indian banks to finance acquisitions. It also enhanced limits on lending by banks against shares from ₹20 lakh to ₹1 crore. RBI also removed the regulatory ceiling on lending against listed debt securities and increased limits for IPO financing to ₹25 lakh from ₹10 lakh per person. When it comes to financing IPO, FPO, or ESOP, the regulator capped the loan limit at ₹25 lakh per individual. It also added that loan amount should not exceed 75% of the subscription.

Invoking Karpoori, PM hits campaign trail in Bihar

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE Patna, New Delhi, Oct 24

PRIME MINISTER NARENDRA Modi on Friday launched his campaign for the Bihar Assembly elections with back-to-back rallies in Samastipur and Begusarai, weaving together a narrative of social justice, development and Hindutva, even as he cautioned people not to let to "jungle raj" return to the state, accusing the Opposition Mahagathbandhan leaders of lawlessness and corruption.

Modi said the incumbent NDA under Chief Minister and JD(U) president Nitish Kumar would clinch the polls and break electoral records. Without declaring Nitish as the NDA's CM candidate, Modi's remarks were apparently meant to counter the Opposition's barb that the BJP has fought shy of projecting Nitish as the CM face because it wanted to replace him after the elections.

The PM chose to launch his campaign by invoking legacy of socialist icon and former Bihar CM Karpoori Thakur. Before addressing his first rally at

Prime Minister Narendra Modi looks at photographs related to former Bihar Chief Minister Karpoori Thakur during his visit to Karpoori Gram, in Samastipur district of Bihar on Friday

Samastipur, he visited Karpoori Gram, the paternal village of Thakur, in Samastipur district in the crucial Mithilanchal region. The Modi government conferred Bharat Ratna on Karpoori Thakur last year.

"I went to Karpoori Gram before coming here. I got a chance to pay my tributes to him. It is due to his blessings that people like me and Nitish ji coming from backward and poor families are on this stage," Modi

told the rally. "In Independent India, in attempts to bring social justice, his role was very big. We had the good fortune of awarding him Bharat Ratna. He was our inspiration." Combining the themes of social justice, law and order and corruption for his attack on the Mahagathbandhan, Modi told the Samastipur rally: "The RJD and Congress people are those on bail in scams running into thousands of crores. Now they are trying to steal the title Jan Nayak (people's hero, an oblique dig at the Congress' projection of Rahul Gandhi). People of Bihar will never tolerate this insult to Jan Nayak Karpoori Thakur."

Referring to widespread belief that Goddess Sita, the wife of Lord Ram, was from Mithilanchal, the PM said, "Your sonin-law is Lord Ram himself. So, when the Ram Templewas built in Ayodhya, people in Mithila were very happy."

In Begusarai, Modi called the Opposition Maha-lathbandhan, a neologism that evoked lathi (baton) to ridicule the INDIAbloc allies for taking on each other over seats. He also accused the Congress of "insulting" former party president Sitaram Kesri, who hailed from Bihar. In Begusarai, too, Modi made similar remarks. In both the speeches, he asked the gathering to switch on their mobile torch, and when many people did so, he quipped, referring to the RJD's poll symbol, "Itni light hai, har ek ke haath mein light hai. toh lalten chahiye kya? Bihar ko lalten aur unke saathi nahin chahiye."

Oppn using Zubeen to 'weaken' Hindu society: Himanta

ASSAM CHIEF MINISTER Himanta Biswa Sarma on Friday alleged that the opposition is using the issue demanding justice to Zubeen Garg to "weaken the Hindu society".

He also criticised eminent author and Sahitya Akademi awardee Rita Chowdhury, wife of state Parliamentary Affairs minister Chandra Mohan Patowary, for condemning a government SOP restricting the visiting hours at the cremation site of Zubeen Garg.

"The opposition is keeping this issue (demanding justice for Zubeen Garg) alive against Hindu society. Akhil Gogoi and the opposition say Zubeen did not have caste or religion. Was Zubeen not Hindu? Was Zubeen not an Assamese?" asked Sarma.

Garg, a rebel singer, had popularly proclaimed that he had no religion-caste, and he was free and just a human. On October 10, in a rare gesture of breaking the caste barrier, a fan of Zubeen Garg tore his 'lagun', the sacred thread worn by Brahmins, at the singer's cremation site and announced that he would live only like a human. PTI

The regulator also proposed to raise the loan-to-value ratio of loan against securities (listed shares and convertible debt securities) to 60% from the current 50%. In the case of government securities, it has been left to individual banks, per their policies. PM SHOWCASES NDA FEATS ON SOCIAL JUSTICE AND DEVELOPMENT

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE Patna, New Delhi, Oct 24

PRIME MINISTER NARENDRA Modi on Friday launched his campaign for the Bihar Assembly elections with back-to-back rallies in Samastipur and Begusarai, weaving together a narrative of social justice, development and Hindutva, even as he cautioned people not to let to "jungle raj" return to the state, accusing the Opposition Mahagathbandhan leaders of lawlessness and corruption.

Modi said the incumbent NDA under Chief Minister and JD(U) president Nitish Kumar would clinch the polls and break electoral records. Without declaring Nitish as the NDA's CM candidate, Modi's remarks were apparently meant to counter the Opposition's barb that the BJP has fought shy of projecting Nitish as the CM face because it wanted to replace him after the elections.

The PM chose to launch his campaign by invoking legacy of socialist icon and former Bihar CM Karpoori Thakur. Before addressing his first rally at

Prime Minister Narendra Modi looks at photographs related to former Bihar Chief Minister Karpoori Thakur during his visit to Karpoori Gram, in Samastipur district of Bihar on Friday

Samastipur, he visited Karpoori Gram, the paternal village of Thakur, in Samastipur district in the crucial Mithilanchal region. The Modi government conferred Bharat Ratna on Karpoori Thakur last year.

"I went to Karpoori Gram before coming here. I got a chance to pay my tributes to him. It is due to his blessings that people like me and Nitish ji coming from backward and poor families are on this stage," Modi

told the rally. "In Independent India, in attempts to bring social justice, his role was very big. We had the good fortune of awarding him Bharat Ratna. He was

our inspiration."

Combining the themes of social justice, law and order and corruption for his attack on the Mahagathbandhan, Modi told the Samastipur rally: "The RJD and Congress people are those on bail in scams running into thousands of crores. Now they are trying to steal the title Jan Nayak (people's hero, an oblique dig at the Congress' projection of Rahul Gandhi). People of Bihar will never tolerate this insult to Jan Nayak Karpoori Thakur."

Referring to widespread belief that Goddess Sita, the wife of Lord Ram, was from Mithilanchal, the PM said, "Your sonin-law is Lord Ram himself. So, when the Ram Templewas built in Ayodhya, people in Mithila were very happy."

In Begusarai, Modi called the Opposition Maha-lathbandhan, a neologism that evoked lathi (baton) to ridicule the INDIAbloc allies for taking on each other over seats. He also accused the Congress of "insulting" former party president Sitaram Kesri, who hailed from Bihar.

In Begusarai, too, Modi made similar remarks. In both the speeches, he asked the gathering to switch on their mobile torch, and when many people did so, he quipped, referring to the RJD's poll symbol, "Itni light hai, har ek ke haath mein light hai. toh lalten chahiye kya? Bihar ko lalten aur unke saathi nahin chahiye."

Oppn using Zubeen to 'weaken' Hindu society: Himanta

ASSAM CHIEF MINISTER Himanta Biswa Sarma on Friday alleged that the opposition is using the issue demanding justice to Zubeen Garg to "weaken the Hindu society".

He also criticised eminent author and Sahitya Akademi awardee Rita Chowdhury, wife of state Parliamentary Affairs minister Chandra Mohan Patowary, for condemning a government SOP restricting the visiting hours at the cremation site of Zubeen Garg.

"The opposition is keeping this issue (demanding justice for Zubeen Garg) alive against Hindu society. Akhil Gogoi and the opposition say Zubeen did not have caste or religion. Was Zubeen not Hindu? Was Zubeen not an Assamese?" asked Sarma.

Garg, a rebel singer, had popularly proclaimed that he had no religion-caste, and he was free and just a human. On October 10, in a rare gesture of breaking the caste barrier, a fan of Zubeen Garg tore his 'lagun', the sacred thread worn by Brahmins, at the singer's cremation site and announced that he would live only like a human. PTI

RBI proposes 70% cap on financing...

ITALSO SAID that the aggregate exposure of a bank towards acquisition financing shall not exceed 10% of Tier-1 capital and proposed that the financing can be extended directly to the acquirer or to a step-down SPV set up for acquisition.

It said that the acquirer should be a listed firm with a record of satisfactory networth and profits for the past three years. Also, the target company and the acquirer should not a related party. Further, the acquisition value of the target companyshall be determined by two independent valuers. The postacquisition debt-to-equity ratio at the acquiring company or the SPV/target company will be subject to 3:1.

As collateral, the bank will have shares of the target company as primary security, and assets of the acquirer and/ortar-

get company or other securities held by the acquiring company, may be taken as collateral security as per the bank's policy.

In addition, it also allowed

banks to fund acquisition of shares of a public sector unit under a disinvestment programme approved by the government. When banks having exposures to capital market, it should not exceed 40% of its tier-I capital as on March 31 of the previous financial year, the RBI said. The bank's direct investment exposure and acquisition financing is capped at 20% of its tier-I capital. The RBI also urged banks to have internal limits for intra-day exposures to individual counterparties.

However, the RBI does not impose any limits on banks' investment in own subsidiaries, joint ventures, and sponsored RRBs, securities issued by forming critical financial infrastructure institutions, and debt instruments issued by other banks, among others.

RBI urged banks to put in place robust mechanisms to monitor end use of the funds and assess suitable risk limits on liquidity, volatility, and potential stress period corrections to curb the potential risks.

The regulator also proposed to raise the loan-to-value ratio of loan against securities (listed shares and convertible debt securities) to 60% from the current 50%. In the case of government securities, it has been left to individual banks, per their policies. MFs excluding debt schemes, units of exchange traded funds and units of REITs/InVITs are subjected to LTV ratio of 75% and debt funds at 85%. The lender should maintain the LTV ratio and take necessary steps if it breaches the LTV ratio. The banking regulator has sought comments on the draft circular till November 21 And the final guidelines will be implemented from April 1.

These proposals come after the RBI unveiled a slew of mea sures to support credit flow where it proposed to provide an enabling framework for Indian banks to finance acquisitions. It also enhanced limits on lending by banks against shares from ₹20 lakh to ₹1 crore. RBI also removed the regulatory ceiling on lending against listed debt securities and increased limits for IPO financing to ₹25 lakh from ₹10 lakh per person. When it comes to financing IPO, FPO, or ESOP, the regulator capped the loan limit at ₹25 lakh per individual. It also added that loan amount should not exceed 75% of the subscription.

ITALSO SAID that the aggregate exposure of a bank towards acquisition financing shall not exceed 10% of Tier-1 capital and proposed that the financing can be extended directly to the acquirer or to a step-down SPV set up for acquisition.

PM SHOWCASES NDA FEATS ON SOCIAL JUSTICE AND DEVELOPMENT

Invoking Karpoori, PM hits campaign trail in Bihar

PRIME MINISTER NARENDRA Modi on Friday launched his campaign for the Bihar Assembly elections with back-to-back rallies in Samastipur and Begusarai, weaving together a narrative of social justice, development and Hindutva, even as he cautioned people not to let to "jungle raj" return to the state, accusing the Opposition Mahagathbandhan leaders of lawlessness and corruption.

Modi said the incumbent NDA under Chief Minister and JD(U) president Nitish Kumar would clinch the polls and break electoral records. Without declaring Nitish as the NDA's CM candidate, Modi's remarks were apparently meant to counter the Opposition's barb that the BJP has fought shy of projecting Nitish as the CM face because it wanted to replace him after the elections.

The PM chose to launch his campaign by invoking legacy of socialist icon and former Bihar CM Karpoori Thakur. Before addressing his first rally at

Prime Minister Narendra Modi looks at photographs related to former Bihar Chief Minister Karpoori Thakur during his visit to Karpoori Gram, in Samastipur district of Bihar on Friday

Samastipur, he visited Karpoori Gram, the paternal village of Thakur, in Samastipur district in the crucial Mithilanchal region. The Modi government conferred Bharat Ratna on Karpoori Thakur last year.

"I went to Karpoori Gram before coming here. I got a chance to pay my tributes to him. It is due to his blessings that people like me and Nitish ji coming from backward and poor families are on this stage," Modi told the rally. "In Independent India, in attempts to bring social justice, his role was very big. We had the good fortune of awarding him Bharat Ratna. He was

our inspiration."

Combining the themes of social justice, law and order and corruption for his attack on the Mahagathbandhan, Modi told the Samastipur rally: "The RJD and Congress people are those on bail in scams running into thousands of crores. Now they are trying to steal the title Jan Nayak (people's hero, an oblique dig at the Congress' projection of Rahul Gandhi). People of Bihar will never tolerate this insult to Jan Nayak Karpoori Thakur."

Referring to widespread belief that Goddess Sita, the wife of Lord Ram, was from Mithilanchal, the PM said, "Your sonin-law is Lord Ram himself. So, when the Ram Temple was built in Ayodhya, people in Mithila were very happy."

In Begusarai, Modi called the Opposition Maha-lathbandhan, a neologism that evoked lathi (baton) to ridicule the INDIA bloc allies for taking on each other over seats. He also accused the Congress of "insulting" former party president Sitaram Kesri, who hailed from Bihar.

In Begusarai, too, Modi made similar remarks. In both the speeches, he asked the gathering to switch on their mobile torch, and when many people did so, he quipped, referring to the RJD's poll symbol, "Itni light hai, har ek ke haath mein light hai, toh lalten chahiye kya? Bihar ko lalten aur unke saathi nahin

Oppn using Zubeen to 'weaken' Hindu society: Himanta

ASSAM CHIEF MINISTER
Himanta Biswa Sarma on Friday alleged that the opposition is using the issue demanding justice to Zubeen Garg to "weaken the Hindu society".

He also criticised eminent author and Sahitya Akademi awardee Rita Chowdhury, wife of state Parliamentary Affairs minister Chandra Mohan Patowary, for condemning a government SOP restricting the visiting hours at the cremation site of Zubeen Garg.

"The opposition is keeping this issue (demanding justice for Zubeen Garg) alive against Hindu society. Akhil Gogoi and the opposition say Zubeen did not have caste or religion. Was Zubeen not Hindu? Was Zubeen not an Assamese?" asked Sarma.

Garg, a rebel singer, had popularly proclaimed that he had no religion-caste, and he was free and just a human.

On October 10, in a rare gesture of breaking the caste barrier, a fan of Zubeen Garg tore his 'lagun', the sacred thread worn by Brahmins, at the singer's cremation site and announced that he would live only like a human.

PM SHOWCASES NDA FEATS ON SOCIAL JUSTICE AND DEVELOPMENT

Invoking Karpoori, PM hits campaign trail in Bihar

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE Patna, New Delhi, Oct 24

PRIME MINISTER NARENDRA Modi on Friday launched his campaign for the Bihar Assembly elections with back-to-back rallies in Samastipur and Begusarai, weaving together a narrative of social justice, development and Hindutva, even as he cautioned people not to let to "jungle raj" return to the state, accusing the Opposition Mahagathbandhan leaders of lawlessness and corruption.

Modi said the incumbent NDA under Chief Minister and JD(U) president Nitish Kumar would clinch the polls and break electoral records. Without declaring Nitish as the NDA's CM candidate, Modi's remarks were apparently meant to counter the Opposition's barb that the BJP has fought shy of projecting Nitish as the CM face because it wanted to replace him after the elections.

The PM chose to launch his campaign by invoking legacy of socialist icon and former Bihar CM Karpoori Thakur. Before addressing his first rally at

Samastipur, he visited Karpoori Gram, the paternal village of Thakur, in Samastipur district in the crucial Mithilanchal region. The Modi government conferred Bharat Ratna on Karpoori Thakur last year.

"I went to Karpoori Gram before coming here. I got a chance to pay my tributes to him. It is due to his blessings that people like me and Nitish ji coming from backward and poor families are on this stage," Modi

told the rally. "In Independent India, in attempts to bring social justice, his role was very big. We had the good fortune of awarding him Bharat Ratna. He was

our inspiration."

Combining the themes of social justice, law and order and corruption for his attack on the Mahagathbandhan, Modi told the Samastipur rally: "The RJD and Congress people are those on bail in scams running into thousands of crores. Now they are trying to steal the title Jan Nayak (people's hero, an oblique dig at the Congress' projection of Rahul Gandhi). People of Bihar will never tolerate this insult to Jan Nayak Karpoori Thakur."

Referring to widespread belief that Goddess Sita, the wife of Lord Ram, was from Mithilanchal, the PM said, "Your sonin-law is Lord Ram himself. So, when the Ram Temple was built in Ayodhya, people in Mithila were very happy."

In Begusarai, Modi called the Opposition Maha-lathbandhan, a neologism that evoked lathi (baton) to ridicule the INDIAbloc allies for taking on each other over seats. He also accused the Congress of "insulting" former party president Sitaram Kesri, who hailed from Bihar. In Begusarai, too, Modi made similar remarks. In both the speeches, he asked the gathering to switch on their mobile torch, and when many people did so, he quipped, referring to the RJD's poll symbol, "Itni light hai, har ek ke haath mein light hai. toh lalten chahiye kya? Bihar ko lalten aur unke saathi nahin chahiye."

Oppn using Zubeen to 'weaken' Hindu society: Himanta

ASSAM CHIEF MINISTER Himanta Biswa Sarma on Friday alleged that the opposition is using the issue demanding justice to Zubeen Garg to "weaken the Hindu society".

He also criticised eminent author and Sahitya Akademi awardee Rita Chowdhury, wife of state Parliamentary Affairs minister Chandra Mohan Patowary, for condemning a government SOP restricting the visiting hours at the cremation site of Zubeen Garg.

"The opposition is keeping this issue (demanding justice for Zubeen Garg) alive against Hindu society. Akhil Gogoi and the opposition say Zubeen did not have caste or religion. Was Zubeen not Hindu? Was Zubeen not an Assamese?" asked Sarma.

Garg, a rebel singer, had popularly proclaimed that he had no religion-caste, and he was free and just a human. On October 10, in a rare gesture of breaking the caste barrier, a fan of Zubeen Garg tore his 'lagun', the sacred thread worn by Brahmins, at the singer's cremation site and announced that he would live only like a human. PTI

RBI proposes 70% cap on financing...

ITALSO SAID that the aggregate exposure of a bank towards acquisition financing shall not exceed 10% of Tier-1 capital and proposed that the financing can be extended directly to the acquirer or to a step-down SPV set up for acquisition.

It said that the acquirer should be a listed firm with a record of satisfactory networth and profits for the past three years. Also, the target company and the acquirer should not a related party. Further, the acquisition value of the target companyshall be determined by two independent valuers. The postacquisition debt-to-equity ratio at the acquiring company or the SPV/target company will be subject to 3:1.

As collateral, the bank will have shares of the target company as primary security, and assets of the acquirer and/ortar-

get company or other securities held by the acquiring company, may be taken as collateral security as per the bank's policy. In addition, it also allowed

banks to fund acquisition of shares of a public sector unit under a disinvestment programme approved by the government. When banks having exposures to capital market, it should not exceed 40% of its tier-I capital as on March 31 of the previous financial year, the RBI said. The bank's direct investment exposure and acquisition financing is capped at 20% of its tier-I capital. The RBI also urged banks to have internal limits for intra-day exposures to individual counterparties.

However, the RBI does not impose any limits on banks' investment in own subsidiaries, joint ventures, and sponsored RRBs, securities issued by forming critical financial infrastructure institutions, and debt instruments issued by other banks, among others. RBI urged banks to put in place robust mechanisms to monitor end use of the funds and assess suitable risk limits on liquidity, volatility, and potential stress period corrections to curb the potential risks. The regulator also proposed to raise the loan-to-value ratio of loan against securities (listed shares and convertible debt securities) to 60% from the current 50%. In the case of government securities, it has been left to individual banks, per their policies. MFs excluding debt schemes, units of exchange traded funds and units of REITs/InVITs are subjected to LTV ratio of 75% and debt funds at 85%. The lender should maintain the LTV ratio and take necessary steps if it breaches the LTV ratio. The banking regulator has sought comments on the draft circular till November 21 And the final guidelines will be implemented from April 1.

These proposals come after the RBI unveiled a slew of mea sures to support credit flow. where it proposed to provide an enabling framework for Indian banks to finance acquisitions. It also enhanced limits on lending by banks against shares from ₹20 lakh to ₹1 crore. RBI also removed the regulatory ceiling on lending against listed debt securities and increased limits for IPO financing to ₹25 lakh from ₹10 lakh per person. When it comes to financing IPO, FPO, or ESOP, the regulator capped the loan limit at ₹25 lakh per individual. It also added that loan amount should not exceed 75% of the subscription.

'सिवान ने शहाबुद्दीन के आतंक को झेला, ओसामा को हराना जरूरी'

जनसत्ता ब्यूरो नई दिल्ली, 24 अक्तूबर।

केंद्रीय गृह मंत्री अमित शाह ने शुक्रवार को कहा कि सिवान की धरती ने दो दशक तक लालू-राबड़ी के 'जंगलराज' और बाहुबली मोहम्मद शहाबुद्दीन के आतंक को झेला है, इसलिए अब जनता को यह सुनिश्चित करना होगा कि शहाबुद्दीन के बेटे ओसामा शहाब को रघुनाथपुर विधानसभा सीट से हार का सामना करना पड़े।

उन्होंने सिवान में एक चुनावी सभा को संबोधित करते हुए यह दावा भी किया कि बिहार में महागठबंधन (इंडिया गठबंधन) अब पूरी तरह बिखर चुका है और जनता ने मन बना लिया है कि राज्य में फिर से राष्ट्रीय जनतांत्रिक गठबंधन (राजग) की सरकार बनानी है।

शाह ने कहा कि लाल प्रसाद ने एक बार फिर शहाबुद्दीन के बेटे को मैदान में उतारा है। सिवान की जनता को यह तय करना होगा कि ऐसे लोगों को अब मौका नहीं दिया जाएगा। बिहार असली दिवाली 14 नवंबर को तब मनाएगा, जब लालू के बेटे को करारी हार मिलेगी। केंद्रीय गृह मंत्री ने प्रधानमंत्री नरेंद्र मोदी के नेतृत्व में हुए राष्ट्रीय सुरक्षा के फैसलों का उल्लेख करते हुए कहा कि मोदी ने जम्मू-कश्मीर से अनुच्छेद 370 हटाया और पहलगाम आतंकी हमले के बाद आपरेशन सिंदूर करके

शाह ने सिवान में एक चुनावी सभा को संबोधित करते हुए यह दावा भी किया कि बिहार में महागठबंधन (इंडिया गढबंधन) अब पूरी तरह बिखर चुका है।

पाकिस्तान की धरती पर आतंक के ठिकानों को ध्वस्त किया। यह है मजबूत नेतृत्व। राजद अध्यक्ष लालू प्रसाद पर निशाना साधते हुए शाह ने कहा कि लालू ने सिर्फ घोटाले किए, चारा घोटाला, जमीन के बदले नौकरी घोटाला, बीपीएससी भर्ती घोटाला... और उन पर आय से अधिक संपत्ति का भी मामला दर्ज है।

उन्होंने कांग्रेस नेता राहल गांधी पर भी हमला बोला और कहा कि राहुल बाबा कहते हैं कि घुसपैठियों को देश में रहने दिया जाए। क्या ऐसा होना चाहिए? यही घुसपैठिए शहाबुद्दीन जैसे लोगों को ताकत देते हैं। मैं कहना चाहता हूं एक भी घुसपैठिया न बिहार में रहेगा, न देश में। केंद्रीय गृह मंत्री अमित शाह ने राजग की केंद्र और राज्य सरकार की उपलब्धियां गिनाई और कहा बिहार विकास की राह पर तेजी से आगे बढने लगा है।

कांग्रेस सीताराम केसरी के प्रति सम्मान का दिखावा

भाजपा ने शुक्रवार को कांग्रेस नेताओं द्वारा सीताराम केसरी की पुण्यतिथि पर उन्हें श्रद्धांजलि दिए जाने को लेकर विपक्षी दल की आलोचना की। साथ ही आरोप लगाया कि वे बिहार विधानसभा चुनाव को ध्यान में रखकर लोगों को 'मूर्ख बनाने' के लिए अपने पूर्व पार्टी अध्यक्ष के प्रति सम्मान प्रदर्शित करने का दिखावा कर रहे हैं।

भाजपा के राष्ट्रीय प्रवक्ता शहजाद पुनावाला ने तीखी प्रतिक्रिया व्यक्त करते हुए कहा कि समय बडा बलवान है। उन्होंने सोशल मीडिया मंच एक्स पर एक पोस्ट में आरोप लगाया कि एक समय, कांग्रेस के प्रथम परिवार के निर्देश पर सीताराम केसरी को अपमानित किया गया -उनकी धोती फाड़ दी गई और सोनिया गांधी के लिए कांग्रेस की गद्दी खाली कराने के मकसद से उनके साथ दुर्व्यवहार किया गया। पूनावाला ने राहुल गांधी पर आरोप लगाया कि वह केवल इसलिए पूर्व पार्टी अध्यक्ष के प्रति सम्मान प्रदर्शित करने का दिखावा कर रहे हैं कि 'बिहार में चुनाव है।'

कांग्रेस सांसद ने हमास की तुलना भगत सिंह से की, बाद में पलटे

नई दिल्ली, 24 अक्तूबर (ब्यूरो)।

कांग्रेस सांसद इमरान मसूद ने फिलिस्तीनी संगठन हमास की तुलना भगत सिंह से करके विवाद खडा कर दिया। हालांकि, बाद में वह अपनी टिप्पणी से पलट गए। भाजपा ने इस मामले पर राहल गांधी से माफी की मांग की और आरोप लगाया कि मसुद का बयान बिहारवासियों का अपमान है क्योंकि भगत सिंह का बिहार से नाता गहरा था।

बयान पर विवाद खड़ा होने के बाद मसूद ने अपने बयान से पलटते हुए दावा किया कि उन्होंने कभी कोई तुलना नहीं की। उनका कहना था कि भगत सिंह 'शहीद-ए-आजम' थे और उनकी किसी से तुलना नहीं की जा सकती। उत्तर प्रदेश के सहारनपुर से लोकसभा सदस्य ने विवादित टिप्पणी एक पाडकास्ट में की।

क्योंझर, २४ अक्तूबर (भाषा)।

ओड़ीशा के क्योंझर जिले के एक गांव में विवाहेतर संबंध के संदेह में एक पुरुष और एक विवाहित महिला के साथ मारपीट की गई और उन्हें जूते की माला पहनाकर सड़कों पर घुमाया गया। आनंदपुर थाने के प्रभारी निरीक्षक फणींद्र
